Farmers Have "Field Day" At Plowing Match At Burford, Ont.

The 36th International Plowing match, annual world championship sod-turning event, was held on farm of Harold Amy, at Burford, Ont., with 160 farmers participating in big event. With precision, Plowman Howard Fers of South Cayuga, Ont., is seen taking his team down the field. Approximately 800 acres was necessary for this year's match, with a city of tents covering 35 acres of ground in the centre of the area set aside for the exhibitions.

Crown of furrow is being measured here by L. H. Winslow of Millbrook, Ont., who has been judging at international matches since 1932, and is rated as tops in field. Interesting feature of this year's match, which topped last year's in attendance by 25 per cent., was demonstration daily of contour plowing by Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Fashions

Wool jersey and velvet, two of the season's favorite fabrics, combine happily in a good two-piecer, excellent for the college girl or the young careerist. The blouse has a pointed collar bordered in velvet, and velvet cuffs to finish the bracelet length sleeves. The skirt is topped by a matching velvet belt and has a released flare in front, and one double patch pocket at the hip. Taupe and brown is the color scheme.

A wedding of interest was solemnized at a high mass at Sacred Heart Church when Miss Adele Meloche, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meloche of LaSalle, became the bride of Mr. Leo Reaume, son of Mr. Henri Reaume. The Rev. Father Paul officiating. Mrs. James Paterson and Mrs. Arsenne Brunet sang during the ceremony and the organ was played by Mrs. A. Brunet.

Entering the church in the arms of Mr. Arthur Gignac the bride was stunning in a street length dress of blue velvet with grey accessories. Her corsage was of talisman roses and baby breath. Her only attendant Miss Katherine Reaume sister of the bridegroom, wore the identical dress of the bride—only of grey velvet and burgandy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnation and baby breath. Mr. Norman Meloche the brides brother assisted as the best man. Following the ceremony a breakfast for the immediate family was held at Chateau LaSalle.

A reception was held at home. The brides table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake. Later Mr. and Mrs. Reaume left for a short trip. They will make their home in LaSalle.
